

20 Winthrop Square

Boston, MA

Prominent Boston address
in the heart of Boston's Financial District

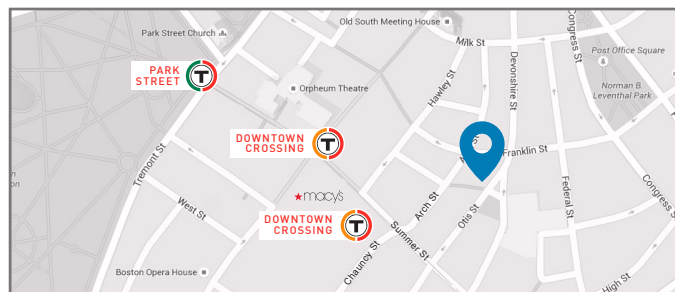

PROPERTY INFORMATION

Built in 1873 after Boston's Great Fire, 20 Winthrop Square puts modern office space in an elegant "Olde Boston" setting. A National Register property, the building is known for its brick and limestone facade, gracefully following the curves of Franklin and Devonshire Streets. Fully renovated in 1984, its four 6,000 s.f. first class office floors are entered through a tastefully decorated lobby featuring bronze elevators and gold accents. The street floor is occupied by retail establishments offering financial and business services.
